President's Report

By John Long

Greetings Troopers, Families and Friends,

The writing of this article brings out all kinds of emotions in me, both bad and good. It feels like deja vu, with our troops fighting in what is developing into a very ugly war, with protests mounting, the war in our living rooms and worse.

However we feel about the war, who more than we appreciate the need to support our troops no matter how tough it gets. I encourage each of you in your own way to do what you can to support them. Many of us know personally men and women that have deployed. Five of my students are currently in combat units in Iraq. The least we can offer is our prayers for the speedy and safe return of all of our soldiers.

I noted with some satisfaction that our unit's legacy carries on in this war with the 7th Cav again in the middle of the fight, continuing its fine tradition.

On a happier note, you will see elsewhere in the newsletter the grand expedition by a number of our troopers and wives to the north woods of Wisconsin to pay homage to one of our own. Thanks to the initiative of Wes Westmoreland, the town of Pickerel and "Killer" Clark will never be quite the same again. Again, our noble "Band of Brothers" takes care of one of their own.

After the last newsletter, a major run of donations was made resulting in the purchase of all but 8 of the battle streamers. The remaining streamers are all from the Korean War. I have already received the first batch of 17 from the Vietnam War and they look great.

The complete set will be a fine addition to our flag. For those that still want to get on the bandwagon, send your check of $55 made payable to the 5th Bn 7th Cav Assoc to John M Long, 7801 Nauitan Court, Hanover, MD 21076.

If all of the streamers are purchased when I receive your check, I will, of course, return your check to you. You can also contact me via email at the address listed in the battalion directory for a current status.

It is not too soon to put the next reunion on your calendar. The guys of A Company guarantee that this one will be the best ever and the folks of northern Kentucky and southern Ohio are eager to show their hospitality.

Plan now to join us in Washington, DC on Nov 11th. It will be hard to surpass the turnout we had last year when we introduced our flag and Color Guard in the first ever Vietnam Veterans March. Considering the state of world affairs, this year will provide a fine opportunity for us to show our support for our troops.

As we progress into our social security years, more of our troopers are developing significant health problems. As you learn about these, please keep members of the Executive Board advised. Having the support of your buddies when times are tough can make a big difference.

The long winter has come to an end and I along with you am looking forward to spring.

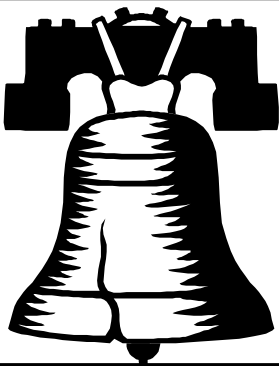

Take care.

Garry Owen All,

It is looking more like spring here in New England. It makes a person feel better after the sub-zero temperatures of January and February.

The weekend of March 15, 16 seventeen Cav 5/7 troopers marched with our 7th Cav Colors in the St. Patrick's Day Parade in Pickerel, WI. Don't look for Pickerel in the atlas index as it is an unincorporated township.

I would like to send a special thanks to "The Country Inn & Restaurant, Petersen's Trailside Inn & Restaurant and Linda's CITGO & Convenience Store. You can tell Linda's by the 5/7 Cav Flag decal in the middle of the front door. There also might be a few more decals on cars and trucks in Pickerel.

The parade route, according to PSgt. Harry Clark Ret., is only ½ mile long. Now I know what a country mile is.

A good time was had by all. Hopefully we will be able to do a few more of these as we cut back on our work schedules. I don't want to say retirement as it sounds old. We are not old, just better.

For those of you that are not on-line, I had a small disagreement with the 7th Cav. Assoc. of which I am a life member and many of you are as well. Their president removed an e-mail message of mine from the 7th Cav association bulletin board.

The message was inviting all 7th Cav members to join us in Pickerel for the parade. As it turned out we did find a couple of other Cav troops there. After many heated e-mails they did re-enter an e-mail about our participation in the Pickerel parade.

This is just one example that proves we are the Best Damned Battalion sized association to come from the Vietnam War. It is your membership that made this happen --- "GARRY OWEN".

On another 7th Cav note their columnist for the 1st Cav Association Saber Newspaper used up a half page telling about the Chinese Year of the Dog. It was copied from the placemat in a Chinese Restaurant.

They don't want us to have space but it is okay to use a restaurant placemat for filler --- go figure?.

Our success in locating new members has dropped off somewhat. However Walt Putback and Danny Smith have recorded some new finds.

Thank you guys. If everyone reading this would put one hour into looking for a buddy, we can grow our association. Don't put it off; find an old friend today!

Now is a great time for any of you that would like to have reunion VIII in your area in 2006.

Get a ground team together and check with Allen, Jasper or myself on what we need. When you come to Cincinnati have your facts ready. We can talk things out so the Board has a direction to pursue.

This is how the Cincinnati group did it.

I hear rumors that we have not been conducting enough of our reunions in the western part of the States --- probably true. A couple of the California guys said the Colorado Springs was west enough for them.

Give me some input to work with. I haven't seen the Pacific Ocean in 15 years.

The Board of Directors needs your input and we're open to all ideas.

Garry Owen, Karl

P.S. Troop Locating --- Everyone find one today!!!

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

As I write this we find another generation of young Americans in harms way. I personally find much of the news reports disturbing. It is impossible to observe what they are doing without memories from our shared experience coming back in strong waves. The history of our nation tells us that in almost every generation freedom must be preserved with the sacrifice of young soldiers.

We have suffered much loss as a nation beginning with September 11th. I fear that losses of this nature may not be over. With this possibility in mind, where do we look for help and strength? Our military power has been nothing but awesome. Today's young soldier seems to be well trained, well equipped, and highly motivated. It would seem that nothing could stand up to us or stop us. But, let us be wary of depending on our might. Let us be reminded of the words of the Psalmist David: PSALM 121 --- <sup>1</sup>will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. <sup>2</sup>My help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth.

Let us be reminded that our source of help remains THE LORD. Let us pray that God will preserve the lives of our young men and women and that God will bless and provide our help.

Letters

January 5, 2003

Dear Editor,

This gift of $100 to the welfare of the 5/7 members is in memory of Nick Kokalis "Greek" KIA 10/28/67 A Company 1 platoon 3 squad — team leader. I would like his past wife and child to know he's still in the hearts and minds of 5/7, especially 31C squad. He was killed by a land mine. That day will always be with others and me as he represented the meaning of "patriot" in every aspect. I also feel that I wouldn't be here today if not for his dedicated leadership in the squad.

I feel very proud, also honored, to have served in the 7 Cavalry. The unit was invincible due to the leadership with its courageous and dedicated patriots in the idea of freedom. We made a difference during our time.

I attended Reunion IV in 1998 with my oldest son and realized devoted comradeship never dies but lives on in the spirit and minds of the 5/7 Cavalry.

Garry Owen, A Company 67-68

John Long, I don't know how I could start to express my appreciation to you and the 5/7 for the heartwarming response I have received from my request for information. I had lost all photos, letters and everything of Tom's in a fire in 1972. I never thought it could happen but after 30 years memories do start to fade. Also, I never really knew the circumstances of Tom's death (if I don't know about it, it never happened) I started my search because I now feel a need to know but most of all so I'll never forget. I am so comforted knowing that because of the men of the Cav 5/7, Tom is not just a name on the wall, that he has not been forgotten.

I have received many emails and I must admit that this is proving to be more difficult than I ever imagined, there is much to digest. I want everyone to know how much I appreciate their sharing of memories.

Gen. John Wickham: Sir, thank you for your account of what happen the night of October 10, 1967. I do remember receiving your letter after Tom's death, even though I don't remember the contents. I know I read it with the same pride that I feel now knowing that Tom served under and with such great men.

Eddie Ratcliffe: Eddie, thank you for all your kind words, they also reminded me of one of the many things that made Tom so special and that was his ability to treat all people equally with respect and dignity.

Bret Coulson: Bret, what can I say, you made it possible for me to see my husband's face for the first time in 30 years, thank you so very much. I am also sorry for the loss of your uncle, I feel blessed knowing that Tom's last journey was taken with men of your uncle's caliber. Yes, thank you, I would love to have a copy of your narrative.

Bill Koutrouba: Bill, yours has been the most difficult email of all, but indeed the most comforting. I have no words to express how deeply grateful I am to you, for now I know that Tom died in your caring arms and not alone and thank you for the tender care you gave him to send him home.

With that, it seems I have temporarily run out of words.

Sincerely, Sandy Aubert

(Editor's Note: Ms. Aubert's husband was Captain Thomas C. Aubert, Headquarters Company 1967. He was killed in action at LZ Colt on October 10, 1967.)

Dear Editor,

We'd like to contribute $55 for an Indian Wars Battle Streamer in memory of General Nelson A. Miles, his son-in-law Captain Samuel Reber and his grandson Major General Miles Reber – "Lest we forget".

Garry Owen, Chuck Reber

Message from Papa Doc Maxwell

As we watch the war with Iraq, I find so many parallels to our own war: the pride of our youth, their dedication, their valor, and the humanity our young men and women show in face of death. Our own 3 Squadron of the 7th Cavalry drove into the war as we did.

As to a lot of our misguided countrymen who like to express their opinions against the war, I say this to them: you have that right of dissent because someone died for it. But I also must ask have you ever given up anything in your life for someone else? Many of us did --- many continue to do so.

To those who are fighting now I pray that they come back to serve a better cause. I also pray, that all who use prayer in their lives that they kneel in front of their God to pray for the well being of our young men and women in uniform.

Members of our family (Kathy's) are on their way to the war in Iraq. When they asked "What is expected of me?", this was my reply: duty to your commander; never, never leave your comrade behind; never betray your god and your fellow soldier! This is my simple wish!

Note from the Secretary

It is hard not to reflect on our time in Vietnam as our nation is once again in war. Our sister battalion the 3rd of the 7th Cavalry is leading the way for the 3rd Infantry Division. Some day in the future members of that unit will reflect back on their time in Iraq as we reflect back on our service in Vietnam. Perhaps they will be fortunate enough to have an organization like ours. They now tread the road that we have trod and our prayers are with them.

We have renewed our corporate certification with the State of Tennessee for the year so we are still considered a non profit veterans organization.

Garry Owen, Jerry Houston

A DAUGHTER'S POEM FOR HER DAD

The glimmer of metal
The badges of courage
they all represent a different event
One where he risked his life
He still cries every once in a while
Forgets to breathe
Looses himself in thought
In the craziness of war.
Terrified faces flash before his eyes
the good-byes haunt him
When he visits the wall with
His friends carved eternally in stone

Sometimes I think he wishes he was frozen in the cold wall also but then he catches a reflection of himself with his family by his side weeping with him
behind him always
And he remembers why is he happy to be alive
He has what his friends died too young to have Happy Veterans Day Dad.

By Alexandra Milder for her Dad, Bob

Treasurer's Report

I hope that this finds all of you had a Happy Easter and enjoying a wonderful spring. Recently we sent out 760 letters to those people of which we have addresses on file but have not yet joined the Association. We received back about 100 letters. Of that about, 50 more people who have joined and about 40 letters were returned with bad addresses. I wish to say "WELCOME HOME" to all those who recently joined.

As a reminder, I use the last statement from the bank to balance our books. This time it's March 31, 2003. Take the time to review it. However, if you sent in any money after March 31st, it won't show up on this report but will be there next time. I can tell you right now that we are in very good shape financially. We are purchasing the flag streamers as donations come in. John Long is handling that. I only write the checks.

Bill Heckley is doing our printing. Bill is a 5th Battalion 7th Cavalry member from C Company 1967. Believe me, he has saved us some printing costs and we are very glad to have him do it. He is doing a great job for us. Yet, no matter how good we are, things happen. In the last newsletter, we had a problem in the computer program that prints your name on the newsletter. So everyone's name was messed up. I personally heard from about 30 of you. Hopefully, it won't happen again but if it does, so be it. However, let us know if there are mistakes in your name, address, and the first year in Vietnam, Company affiliation, etc. We will correct it.

In the past both Allen Patrick and I tried to print the newsletter, and then add stamps, and labels to each and every copy. Then sort, and go to the Post Office to mail them. That system took many hours over a couple of days. When I was doing the mailing by hand, I could catch mistakes and make corrections as needed. I'm sure Allen has had similar experiences. However, we haven't done that for years now. We couldn't do it today with the hundreds and in some cases over 1,400 newsletters we send out. Today, it's all done by computer and mailed without us ever seeing the finished newsletter or label. We want the newsletter to be something each and everyone is proud of. So, let us know about any mistakes but remember us humans are working with computers and we can't help it if those lousy computers make mistakes.

Talking about mistakes and making corrections; the battalion database was put together so that we can all benefit from it. It's our phone book to find members and it helps us stay in contact with each other.

We know there are troopers who haven't attended a reunion or had much contact after they got home. For many of us, it has taken years to want to find others or to even want to talk about our experiences. Yet when someone wishes to contact another trooper, the database has helped.

Believe me this has been a labor of love. In the past two years, I have made hundreds of changes to the addresses we have on file. In fact, of the 1,400 or so active addresses, over 50% of you have had changes made to your file. I would hope that if you change your address, phone or internet address you will let me know. It's easier than us trying to find you again.

You know, I had wondered over the years about Sgt. Ted Morehouse. He was wounded back in November 1966 along with six others, including me. I will never forget that night. We were sent on to Qhin Nhon to the hospital. I was in one ward and he was in another. One day I visited him in his ward. He had shrapnel in both eyes and both were bandaged. A few days later, I was sent to Japan and I lost track of him.

I often wondered what happened to Sgt Morehouse. The other day, I decided to do a phone search using the internet. Within a few minutes, I found him.

Sgt. Morehouse is blind in one eye but has limited vision in the other. Like many of us, most of his memories about Vietnam are blurred. If there are those of you out there who would like to talk to him, give him a call. His phone number is 573-646-3496. He lives in Bland, Missouri.
