PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Memorial Day, that special day when we honor our fallen, is upon us. For us who served with them and for their families, it is a time to remember their goodness, their commitment to us and to our country, and the unfulfilled promise in each one which was forfeited on the battlefield. It is our prayer that we live our lives in such a way as to bring honor to those who gave their all in our behalf.

This year several of us will be in Washington just prior to Memorial Day to watch the screening of Norman Lloyd's film "M.I.A.'s on Tiger Mountain" at the GI Film Festival. For those of you who haven't seen it, it tells the story of the fierce D Company battle on Tiger Mountain in 1968 and the unwavering commitment to recover evidence of the 3 D Co men and 3 aviators who were lost and not recovered. You must see it.

You'll remember that "Shakey's Hill" received the prize as Best Documentary at this Festival several ago. We are confident that this marvelous film will also be recognized with the 1st Place Award. It will be shown at 3:30 Saturday afternoon, May 23. I'm sure you'll enjoy the screening if you're in the area that day.

The Memorial Day Wreath Laying at the Vietnam Memorial will begin at 1 PM, Monday, May 25. As usual, our wreath will be laid as part of the program. Those of us attending will gather in the vicinity of the Park Service gazebo between 11 & 12 o'clock. All are welcome and invited.

All the very best wishes for you and your families. Have a great summer.

Garry Owen! Maury

"KRAZY" Karl's Report

Hooray, Hooray, it's the 1st of May and now a little later as you are reading this. It has stopped snowing here in New Hampshire. We had over a 100 days in a row that the temp never got above freezing. Yup, the oil companies got richer this winter. Carol & I broke out to California, Arizona & the Bahamas to break it up. Reunion XIII, reservations have just gone over 100 at this time which is wonderful. Make your reservations so you don't get left out. This hotel does have enough rooms for all of us, so there won't be an over flow hotel like Springfield, but there is always the big IF. There is a slight possibility that the hotel may book in another group also, do your reservations today. This is a challenge from me to you. If you guys fill all 500 rooms I'll sleep in rolled up in a poncho liner in the lobby.

Over my 15 years as your 1st VP, I have sent out 1000+ "Welcome Home Letters" telling about our great association. In these packets I include a Form 180, which can be sent to National Personnel Records to get copies of your orders. In the letter I ask that when you get copies of your orders you send me a copy so when can continue to do location searches for other 5/7 troopers. I have gotten very few copies and only about 1 in 10 of these troopers actually join our association. How well do I know that this unique period of time in our life will never be forgotten and through the association I have come to understand and live with it. Now is your time to join, come to Reunion XIII in Colorado and be like so many other 5/7 troopers who say as they leave, "I'll never miss another reunion and will see you on Veteran's Day in, Washington, DC." This leads me to another interesting statistic, we have more troopers come from California on Veterans Day than we do from Virginia. Trust me it is easier to go to "The Wall," with friends than by yourself.

It's your 5/7 Cavalry Association – Please Join

It's your 5/7 Cavalry Reunion – Please Attend

Jackets – The shipping of the jackets has gone up to the point where I am going to have to raise the price starting July 1, 2015. Actual shipping cost for me to get an XL jacket and shipped to you when it is done is $28.40. I have been charging a flat fee of $10.00 for shipping. I do have a few in stock which I will ship at the regular jacket price of $140 for quilted and $110 for the light weight nylon. I also have a couple of light weight jackets with the Survivor embroidery on the back.

Promotion -On Friday, May 1, Michael Konczey (Iraq 2007-2008) was promoted to Colonel in a ceremony at Carlisle Barracks, PA. LTG (Ret) William Webster, who commander the 3rd Infantry Division from 2004-2006 and activated the current 5-7 Cavalry, officiated. Many Konczey family members, friends, and Army War College classmates were there to congratulate Mike and his wife Tamra on this well-deserved recognition of Mike's past service and his enormous potential. Colonel Konczey served as the Operations Officer and later the Executive Officer for the Squadron during their 2007-2008 deployment to Iraq.

Pat Smith – A company 1969 has been elected the Board of Directors of the United States Army Officer Candidate School Alumni Association. Their association is trying to find members also. As most of us are aware we can't avoid the process of getting older as time passes. Speaking of time, our 13th biennial reunion next year in Colorado Springs will mark the 50th anniversary of the formation of the 5th Battalion 7th Cavalry unit at Ft Carson.

The 7th Cavalry is one of the most celebrated units in the annals of the US Army's history. The history of the 7th Cavalry Regiment began on July 28, 1866. At this time the unit was integrated into the Regular Army as E Company, 7th Cavalry at Fort Riley, Kansas. On April 13, 1867, less than a year after its formation, the 7th Cavalry saw its first skirmishes in Colorado against the Cheyenne Indians. In April 1873, George A. Custer and his 7th Cavalry was recognized as a "model of soldierly discipline and efficiency," and sent to face the feared Sioux Indians in the Dakotas.

Since those early days in US history the 5/7 Cavalry has served with distinction through both World Wars, the Korean conflict, the Vietnam era and again during the campaigns in Iraq and Afghanistan.

It's hard to believe that 50 years will have passed when we next gather at the Hotel Elegante in Colorado Springs for the week of August 7 – 13, 2016. I still have vivid memories of the unit leaving Fort Carson for San Francisco and then boarding the USS Gaffey and sailing out under the Golden Gate Bridge heading for Vietnam.

At that time, I did not expect to be around this long but I'm really looking forward to our next gathering in Colorado Springs. Lord willing, I will be there. The Devil had his chance and blew it; his introduction to hell in South East Asia was a failure.

For my brothers that joined me on that sea cruise & the group that flew over to great us in An Khe, Vietnam get off your duffs and make plans to be at the reunion. We survived a lot more 49 years ago than anything the world can throw at us in the year coming.

As for those that followed us, be it Southeast Asia, Iraq, Afghanistan, or the next undisclosed hell hole, to today's men of the 5/7, it's going to be a party you don't want to miss. It's an ongoing tradition of Brotherhood like no other in the military.

As for you younger guys that went to Iraq, this is your 12th year reunion in a resort setting that many may have not had the pleasure to visit. Us old guys are falling apart at the seams and we need some new blood to continue this organization so come on out and join us. It's a great hotel with lots of amenities and very family friendly. You're going to love it and the price is right too!

LETTERS

This past Wednesday, February 18th I had the distinct pleasure of conducting my final enlistment ceremony. SSG Andrew Lewis (1st Platoon, B Troop, 2006-2009) kindly asked me to conduct the oath of enlistment into the Pennsylvania Army National Guard, which I was extremely proud to do.

After 10 years on the active side, Andrew is joining the PAANG on an OCS enlistment where he hopes to become an Armor Officer. While it took some serious squeezing to get into the old uniform, we were very proud to represent the Cavalry and particularly the 5-7 CAV during his ceremony at the White House Communications Agency.

In addition to his Guard commitment, Andrew will be finishing up his MBA at Temple University and working with his brother's construction company. Very proud of SSG Lewis as he makes the transition to civilian life and the Guard. I've attached a couple of photos.

To: All the members of the 5/7 CAV Association

This note is to say, Thank you! Firstly to all the members of the battalion I joined in Cambodia in 1970, from General Maury Edmond's to the last man, who allowed me to be with you during your time on a very dangerous mission in Cambodia in 1970. An experience where the men of Bravo Company taught me some of the ways to stay alive in the Jungle, these experiences also helped mold me to the person I am today, a person who will always have great reverence and respect for the Men and Women and their families of our United States Military.

The Battalion has always been ready to give me support, from Vietnam to Iraq, as well as all stops in between, physically, mentally, and financially to help me tell the story of our military, maybe a little.... lopsided.... toward my friends and heroes of the 5/7 CAV.

We are about to screen our latest film " The M.I.A's on Tiger Mountain " at the G.I.Film Festival, Saturday May 23 at 3:30 pm at the Angelika Film Center, 2911 District Ave, Fairfax, V.A. 22031.

This film would never have been made without the cooperation and help, and in particular financial Donations to the Commitment and Sacrifice Foundation by so many of you, this film is all of our film, I'm so proud we could do it together.

It changed my life being welcomed into the fold of Bravo Company, the men I was with in 1970, and then again in 2004 in Cincinnati by the battalion, it has been a true blessing, and Maury, you're the one who made it all happen, I am eternally grateful to you.

Garryowen,
Norman Lloyd

The Combat Medic Prayer

Oh Lord, I ask for the divine strength to meet the demands of my profession. Help me to be the finest medic, both technically and tactically. If I am called to the battlefield, give me the courage to conserve our fighting forces by providing medical care to all who are in need. If I am called to a mission of peace, give me the strength to lead by caring for those who need my assistance. Finally, Lord help me take care of my own spiritual, physical and emotional needs. Teach me to trust in your presence and never-failing love. Amen

5th Squadron News

GARRYOWEN from Fort Stewart and thank you for your continued support over the years!

In January of this year, the unit assumed its alignment with the United States Army, Europe. Should the situation require heavy forces, the 1st Armored Brigade, 3rd Infantry Division will deploy and execute its mission as assigned by our senior national leaders. What this means is while the Army is operating on a severely constricted budget, the brigade and 5-7 CAV is allocated a larger portion of that budget. A larger budget enables us to conduct some hard and realistic training at Fort Stewart and overseas.

As I sit here today, Crazy Troop serves as the forward scouts in front of an international coalition brigade combat team. That training includes a gunnery exercise at Grafenwohr and Hohenfels Training Areas in Germany. Additionally, 17 of those troopers earned the coveted German Proficiency Badge while training with the German Army. That pace will increase in the fall, as we expect to be deployed in three countries across Europe executing training with our international partners. Until then the remainder of the Squadron is training hard in the field and I am writing this update from our fully digital tactical operations center, which will be sent via satellite to the Association.

Looking specifically at this field exercise, the unit has dipped into its rich history and retrained on helicopter inserted scouts. While many of you are familiar with these operations, our younger team is just learning this for the first time. You can imagine the first few insertions were filled with stumbling door exits and lots of night land navigation errors, but as we continue, we are getting better every day and putting the forward scout in place with a radio; making him a truly lethal weapon.

The Squadron will begin its transformation process in June to become even more lethal and survivable. We will divest ourselves of the scout truck platforms and upgrade to the six Bradley scout platoon. The squadron will also receive its own permanent tank troop. Both of these changes will result in a greater ability to move faster and strike harder as we spear head efforts in front of the brigade.

All will be happy to know that the Squadron still dominates at gunnery. We earned the "high troop/company" in the brigade for both the scout trucks and the Bradley fighting vehicle. Sorry, but this means a bunch of scouts outshot the Infantry. 5-7CAV received the Division Retention Award for FY16 and Crazy Troop was awarded the Armor Draper award for leadership excellence.

Meanwhile, we continue to support the families and build teams to assist during deployments. Our next major family event will occur on May 29th where children from across the unit will "earn their spurs". This event will include a simulated water crossing (rafts in the pool), obstacle course (real obstacle course), marksmanship training (water balloons/super soakers) and also camouflage techniques (face camo). We are excited about this and look forward to a great event!

As with any Army unit, leaders change. I will give up command on August 6th to LTC Chris Mahaffey. Currently serving with NORAD (Joint Task Force-North) at Fort Bliss, he and his family will arrive at Fort Stewart in late July and assume command ahead of the fall 2015 European missions. Command Sergeant Jeffrey Lujan will remain in place and is currently dual hatted as the Brigade (rear) and Squadron CSM. SGM Carlos Barnes remains strong as the Operations Sergeant Major. MAJ J.D. Evans will depart in June for the US Army Safety Center and MAJ Adam Cecil (Infantry) will move up to the executive officer position. I am headed back to Texas for retirement and I am sad but glad to be going out on top. It has been a great honor for me to lead and serve with the Squadron and wish all former and current members the best of luck in the future.

Thank you for your service and Garryowen! LTC Jack

Lityjak Letter

GARRYOWEN to all my brothers-in-arms. First, I would like to thank all those, who sent their best wishes and prayers, when I was hospitalized in January and February. My recovery is going well, and I am hoping all goes well in the future.

Someone once said Reunions are time, when old friends get together and reminiscence about their time in Vietnam. I am sure the stories have abounded, and they seem to get better with time. The reunions have also provided my wife, Patty with the opportunity to meet some of the men I had served with. It has also provided the both of us with the opportunity for new friendships with so many people. It has truly been a great experience.

Patty and I have attended Reunions and the Wall Events in DC since the St. Louis Reunion in 2002. That one will always be remarkable, as I spent time with four men, who helped me understand the experience in Vietnam, and how I felt about myself. At each Reunion and DC event since then, I have met more and more men I served with.

The Reunion in Springfield, MO was probably a collation of the many Reunions, as there were at least ten men from my company, who attended. They were in Nam just prior and just after I served in the 4th Platoon, C 5/7, and was medicated home, in January of 1970. What occurred in Springfield, MO was our group was able to have a mini Reunion at the home of Marvin Deckard. I have included a photo of the group, many of whom attended with their wives, the cookout at Marvin's home. From the left to the right, it includes Marvin Deckard, Joe "LT" McVeigh, Ben "Top" Weedman, Joe Berry, George Hannaford, Tommy Clark, me, and Tom Coulson. Not included in the photo were Rich Offoiter, and Pat "CO" Dockery. To say the least, Springfield, MO was a great Reunion. Thanks to all. Garryowen, Bill

After unanimous approval by the Association's Officers, I signed the check for the $10,000 donation to Norman Lloyd's Commitment and Sacrifice Fund Raising Drive. This was a highlight of my service as the Association Treasurer. This donation enabled Norman to complete work on his film "The M.I.A.'s On Tiger Mountain", Norman sent a nice "Thank You" to all of you for this donation.

I received an unusual number of calls, emails and notes since my last report. Marilyn Porod sent in a few pages from the book, THE BATTLE FOR BIRD, which featured her late husband, George. She hopes to see everyone again at the next reunion.

When the reunion reservation information is available, please take time to catch up your dues and make the reservations early. Those that work in the reservation office are glad to see you, but they normally work all day and have little time to participate in the reunion activities. Let's give them a break. Register early.

If you get the BUGLE by email, contact Karl or me for current dues status. Garry Owen, Royce
